

FORMER STUDENT SEEKING DEGREE

Students who attended BSC and met degree requirements but failed to complete an Application for Degree may still do so. Students must reapply for admission by submitting the Readmission Application for Degree as well as the Application for Degree. If all current degree requirements have been met, the degree will be awarded at the end of the current semester. Review the Former Student Seeking Degree webpage for more information.